All About Me

I was born and raised in Warren, Ohio, and bring over 30 years of professional experience in education and leadership. I began my career as a reading teacher under the No Child Left Behind initiative and spent several years working within local school districts, including serving as a substitute teacher across multiple grade levels.

Following my work in education, I expanded my leadership experience as a manager with Worthington Industries, where I developed strong organizational, supervisory, and operational skills. I later returned to the field of education, bringing with me a well-rounded background that blends instructional expertise with real-world management experience.

Family

I am a proud parent of three children and a graduate of Ohio Christian University. My career has been guided by a deep commitment to education, literacy, and supporting the growth and success of both children and adults.
